DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The examiner is in receipt of applicant's reply to office action mailed 9/6/2005, which was received 12/8/2005. Further, a reply to a restriction received 3/6/2005 elected Group ID, which included claims 31 and 35-37 with traverse. Applicant argues that the examination of the additional claims would not present a "serious burden" on the examiner. The examiner notes that the restriction is done apriori, therefore the extent of burden is not determinable. Further, it is noted that the examiner disagrees that a search of the one group would necessarily include the aspects of the other groups. The applicant's arguments and amendment have been carefully considered and were found to be persuasive, however after further consideration a new grounds of rejection is provided below necessitated by amendment.

Examiner's Note

Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers or figures in the references as applied to the claims below for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 31 and 35-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Anderson et al (US PG Pub 2004/0039750).

In regards to claims 31 and 35-37, Anderson discloses all the features of the instant claims. For instance, Anderson teaches “the present invention relates to a computer publication and provides a computer publication in the form of a virtual book, magazine or catalogue. The publication appears on the computer screen with the “look and feel” of a real-life publication. The publication has pages which can be turned (appearing as an animation on the computer screen) and the publication can be manipulated with the appearance of being manipulated in three dimensions” (see abstract and all FIGURES).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 31 and 35-37 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection necessitated by amendment.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
